Universal Health Services, Inc. Appoints Darren Lehrich as Vice President of Investor Relations

September 15, 2025

KING OF PRUSSIA, Pa., Sept. 15, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- Universal Health Services, Inc. (NYSE: UHS), one of the largest and most respected providers of hospital and healthcare services, announced today that Darren Lehrich has joined as Vice President of Investor Relations. Lehrich reports to CFO Steve Filton in the newly established investor relations role.

Lehrich joins UHS from Help at Home where he served in strategic finance leadership roles since 2022 including Senior Vice President of investor relations and finance and most recently as CFO. He previously led investor relations for Magellan Health Inc. and American Renal Associates Holdings Inc.

Prior to his corporate finance leadership roles, Lehrich covered the healthcare industry for 17 years as an equity research analyst. He led Deutsche Bank's healthcare providers coverage as managing director from 2005-2015 and served in similar financial analyst roles at Piper Jaffray, SunTrust Robinson Humphrey and Furman Selz.

Lehrich holds a Bachelor's degree in Health Policy and Administration from Pennsylvania State University and an MBA in Finance from Purdue University.

"Darren is a well-regarded investor relations professional and strategic finance leader who brings strong, trusting relationships within the investor and analyst community," said Steve Filton, EVP and CFO, UHS. "Darren's coverage of the industry and UHS, coupled with his experience in building investor relations functions, make him an ideal partner for me and the UHS leadership team. We are excited to welcome Darren to the UHS team."
