Universal Health Services, Inc.

Steve G. Filton Appointed Chief Financial Officer Of Universal Health Services, Inc.

July 14, 2003

KING OF PRUSSIA, Pa., July 14 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Universal Health Services, Inc. (NYSE: UHS), headquartered in King of Prussia, PA, has named Steve G. Filton as the company's Chief Financial Officer effective July 1, 2003, as announced by Alan B. Miller, Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Filton will assume the responsibilities of CFO in addition to his current supervisory duties of accounting, financial reporting, taxes, purchasing and information services.

Prior to this new appointment, Mr. Filton served as UHS Vice President, Controller and Secretary. He joined UHS in 1985 as Director of Corporate Accounting after working for six years in the audit division of Arthur Andersen.

A graduate of the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania, he holds a Bachelor of Science degree in accounting and is a member of the American and Pennsylvania Institutes of Certified Public Accountants.

"Steve has demonstrated his dedication to UHS in assuming numerous responsibilities throughout his career at UHS," said Mr. Miller. "His varied experience and strength in so many financial areas, as well as the respect he receives from colleagues, make him the ideal choice for this new position. He has been with UHS 18 years and has contributed to our unique and admired corporate culture. We wish Steve all the best in his new post."

Universal Health Services, Inc. is one of the largest hospital management companies in the nation. With 100 facilities across the country, in Puerto Rico and in France, UHS owns and operates medical, surgical and behavioral health hospitals and ambulatory surgery and radiation therapy centers. UHS acts as advisor to Universal Health Realty Income Trust, a real estate investment trust (NYSE: UHT).
